

San Jose

SUMMER SHOWCASE

August 16-18 / 2012

CAAM presents the San Jose Summer Showcase, a 3-day film series featuring 15 exceptional works from around the globe. Fans of the San Francisco International Asian American Film Festival will have the chance to revisit their favorite films and see bold new works.

For more information and to purchase tickets visit: WWW.CAAMEDIA.ORG

CAAM

THU 08.16 // SAN JOSE MUSEUM OF ART

GRACELAND 5-8pm (screening at 6pm)

Cost: $5 General Admission/Free for CAAM & SJMA Members

The Center for Asian American Media (CAAM) is pleased to partner with SJMA to present GRACELAND, a special collection of short films that takes viewers on a global journey—from Australia to Malaysia to the United States—as we follow people in their pursuit of a better place and a better state of being—on the path to Graceland.

Curated by Christine Kwon.

Filmmakers will be in attendance

For more info: www.sjmusart.org/event/third-thursday-short-films

SAN JOSE MUSEUM OF ART

FRI 08.17 // CAMERA 3 CINEMAS

THE REBEL 7pm

Cost: $8 Students/Seniors/CAAM Members, $10 General Admission

THE REBEL, one of Vietnam's first big budget blockbusters, has it all: drama, intrigue, revolution, romance, and thrilling martial arts choreography. Cuong, portrayed by martial arts star Johnny Nguyen (Clash) is a government agent who is out on the run with a fierce young insurgent (played by Vietnamese pop star/model/actress Ngo Thanh Van).

FRI 08.17 // KOJI SAKE LOUNGE

NEW AMERICAN FILMMAKERS TOUR RECEPTION 9pm

Free Admission (21+)

Come out and celebrate the launch of the New American Filmmakers Tour in San Jose! Mingle with special guests and nosh on tasty treats.

This program and reception is generously supported by The Vilcek Foundation's New American Filmmakers (NAF) Program

VILCEK
FOUNDATION

SAT 08.18 // CAMERA 3 CINEMAS

BEIJING TAXI 3pm

Cost: $8 Students/Seniors/CAAM Members, $10 General Admission

With the preparations for the 2008 Summer Olympic Games as the backdrop, the feature-length documentary, BEIJING TAXI, portrays the profound transformation of the ancient capital of China told through the eyes of three taxi drivers, each with their own perspectives. Preceded by short film, CHIEF

SAT 08.18 // CAMERA 3 CINEMAS

AU REVOIR TAIPEI 6pm

Cost: $8 Students/Seniors/CAAM Members, $10 General Admission

After his girlfriend leaves for Paris, lovelorn Kai (Jack Yao) spends his waking hours studying French in a local bookstore where he meets Susie (Amber Kuo), a worker who takes an interest in him. When an opportunity to travel to Paris to surprise his girlfriend arises, Kai, Susie, and his best friend Gao become entangled in a whirlwind night around Taipei filled with intrigue and adventure.

SAT 08.18 // CAMERA 3 CINEMAS

SKATEISTAN 9pm

Cost: $8 Students/Seniors/CAAM Members, $10 General Admission

Oliver Percovich and Sharna Nolan came to Kabul in 2007 with only a few skateboards with them. They had an idea to set up daily sessions with kids and connect with them through skateboarding. These humble beginnings soon transformed into the first school for skateboarding, they called it Skateistan.

This program is generously supported by The Vilcek Foundation's New American Filmmakers (NAF) Program.

VILCEK
FOUNDATION

San Jose Museum of Art (110 South Market Street)

Camera 3 Cinemas (288 South 2nd Street)

Koji Sake Lounge (48 South 1st Street)