CAAMFest San Jose Welcomes 10 Grandriders from Taiwan to the San Jose Premiere of GO GRANDRIDERS
August 17, 2013

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30, 2013 - CAAMFest San Jose is pleased to announce the San Jose premiere of GO GRANDRIDERS as our Centerpiece Presentation. Ten Grandriders are coming from Taiwan to attend the screening on Saturday, August 17 at 6:30PM at Camera 3 Cinema. Join Director Hua Tien-hau and Producer Yi-Ying Lin, with cast and crew, as they launch their California Coast tour at a private reception at Fahrenheit Restaurant & Lounge, in San Jose, CA. Tickets for the screening and the reception are available now at CAAMedia.org.

GO GRANDRIDERS follows a group of Taiwanese senior citizens who embark on what may be the most daring adventure of their lives: a thirteen-day tour—entirely on motorcycle—around the island of Taiwan. A number in the group have heart problems, two have had cancer, and their average age is 81. The trip brings harrowing escapes, pure exhilaration, and somber reflection. Along the way, the Grandriders travel to nursing homes, eliciting cheers, tears and admiration from other elders as they describe the tour. As their captain announces, "Elders are not only capable but energetic. No one is too old to realize their dreams."

Second Street San Jose, CA 95113) are priced as follows: $12 (General Public), $11 (Students, Seniors (65+) and disabled), $10 (CAAM, SJMA Members).
